Outcomes

Parents are actively encouraged to utilize maternal, child and social services in Hamilton County, such as: prenatal appointments, parenting class attendance, child immunizations and a number of other activities that improve family health and child development.

As a result of the BABE Store program, more parents are completing parenting and/or nutrition classes, working toward their GED, attending breastfeeding support groups and establishing goals with a self-sufficiency outcome while achieving personal dignity and increased self-esteem. With these incentives, parents are also more likely to participate in other programs that improve the overall health and well-being of their entire family.

Community Support

The BABE Store depends on community support. Donating new or gently used baby clothing (up to size 6), baby supplies and essentials, including maternity clothes are critical for meeting the needs of Hamilton County residents. Items can be easily donated through Good Samaritan Network of Hamilton County. Donation receipts are available for all donations.

Monetary donations help purchase non-donated items required for the store and will allow us to meet the needs of Hamilton County residents more readily and expand the scope of our operations. Contact:
